About us

We started in 2014 as a two person stall at a weekend market and are now a team of eleven bakers, pastry cooks and counter staff. Every dough is mixed by hand, and we still use the starter from that first market season. We still close when the bread runs out.

Ingredients and sourcing

Our flour comes from an Ontario mill, our butter from a family dairy, and our fruit from farms within a few hours of the city. Day old bread goes to a local food bank every evening.
